SCHIZOPHRENIA SOCIETY OF NOVA SCOTIA
A REASON TO HOPE. THE MEANS TO COPE.

Living with mental illness does not mean walking alone

OUR OBJECTIVES

- to provide public education to eliminate the stigma and misunderstanding associated with schizophrenia
- to advocate on behalf of families and those living with schizophrenia
- to promote research into finding better treatments and an ultimate cure for schizophrenia
- to provide support, education and socialization opportunities for those living with schizophrenia and their families through monthly group meetings
- to partner with people and other community groups who promote good mental health

SCHIZOPHRENIA

- a serious, but treatable, brain disorder
- affects 1 in 100 people – that's about 9,000 Nova Scotians
